Western To Graduate Over 1000

Class Will Be The Largest In 58-Year School History

Western expects to graduate more than 1000 students this year for the first time in the history of the college, according to an announcement by Dr. Kelly Thompson. The list of graduates for the spring commencement Friday, June 5, has been released by Registrar Rhea P. Lazarus.

A total of 626 candidates will receive degrees at the spring graduation in the E. A. Diddle Arena of the Academic Athletic Building June 5 at 7:30 p.m. (CST).

More than 400 candidates will be awarded degrees at the summer commencement Friday, August 7.

In addition to the candidates receiving degrees June 5, nine students will be awarded the Associate of Arts degree in a separate ceremony for completion of the two-year program in secretarial science. At the same ceremony 19 students will be awarded certificates for completion of the one-year program in secretarial science.

Largest Graduation

The 626 candidates who will receive degrees on June 5, mark the greatest number ever graduated at a commencement ceremony in the 58-year history of Western. The increased number of graduates is in keeping with the spectacular enrollment growth at Western. In the spring of 1956 Western had an enrollment of 1,684. This year the enrollment has increased to nearly 6,000.

Dr. Willard E. Goslin, chairman of the Division of Education at George Peabody College for Teachers, Nashville, Tenn., will deliver the commencement address.

Dr. William E. Slider, pastor of the Christ Methodist Church in Louisville, will deliver the baccalaureate address in the E. A. Diddle Arena on Sunday, May 31, at 7:30 p.m. (CST).

At the spring commencement 28 candidates will be awarded the Master of Arts degree; 158 will receive the Bachelor of Arts degree; 428 will receive the Bachelor of Science degree; and 12 will receive the Bachelor of Music degree.

Majority Kentuckians

A total of 550 of the candidates are Kentuckians from 65 counties. One candidate is from Medan, Indonesia. Seventy-five are from 21 different states.

A total of 433 of the candidates are qualified for the teacher's certificate and eligible to teach in the schools of Kentucky.

The Ogden Medal will be awarded during the commencement program to the student in the graduating class holding the highest academic average for the four year's undergraduate study at Western. Herbert J. Smith, the Ogden Regent, will make the presentation.

Honor graduates will be recognized during the ceremonies. A Honor graduate is designated as a student who holds a 3.3 academic standing or better of a possible 4.0 standing for the four year's undergraduate study.

Registrar Rhea P. Lazarus will present the candidates for degrees. Dr. Thompson will formally confer the degrees and recognize those designated as honor graduates.

Candidates for degrees are:

ALLEN COUNTY:

A.B. degree — John Oldridge Cliburn, Scottsville.

B.S. degree — Delton H. Frost, Shirley Ann Graves, James

Dennis Pearson, and Kelly D. Powell, all of Scottsville.

McGuffey To Be Head Of Alumni

The Western alumni association will install a new president and new member of its board of directors June 5.

Harold McGuffey, operator of a Smith's Grove insurance agency, will take office as president replacing Dr. Merrill W. Schell, the Owensboro surgeon who has held the position for two terms.

Joining the four-member executive committee of the board of directors for a four year term will be Dr. Chalmer Embry, a dentist practicing in Owensboro.

McGuffey was elected for the one-year term at a meeting of the board of directors during Homecoming last fall. Dr. Embry was elected by popular vote of alumni association members just prior to Homecoming.

The board of directors is made up of four executive committee members elected for staggered four-year terms by the association's membership and the presidents of the five alumni chapters. The president is elected by the board of directors.

Played For Diddle

Both McGuffey and Dr. Embry played on some of Coach E. A. Diddle's outstanding basketball teams.

McGuffey, who took his B.S. degree in agriculture in 1941, played for two years after transferring to Western from Campbellsville Junior College. The Lincoln County native was a member of the 1941 NCAA team which lost to Duquesne by one point.

Harold McGuffey

Dr. Embry will be remembered as a star of some of the outstanding post-war Hilltopper teams. He played for one year before entering the Marine Corps during World War II, and returned to star during the 1944-47 seasons.

Dr. Embry, who received his dentistry degree from the University of Louisville in 1951, is a native of Hartford. Married to the former Gladys McLevaine, he has two children, Charles, 10,

Smith, Price Win "Voices" Oakley Award

The staff of "Voices" announces the winners of the 1963-64 Cecil Richard Oakley awards for the outstanding poem and short story of the year.

Recipients of the $5 awards were Algie Ray Smith for his short story, "Sonny and the Yellow Ball," and Ralph Price for his poem, "If the Poet Had Been a Toe-Nosed Desert-Hearted Indian Like Me."

The awards, which are presented annually, are given by Mr. and Mrs. Cecil B. Oakley in memory of their son, Richard. The purpose of the award is to encourage creative writing on the campus.

67 Grads To Be Recognized

Sixty-seven Western State College seniors will graduate with honors at Western's spring commencement Friday night, June 5. Fourteen are from Bowling Green and Warren County.

To graduate with honors a student must have maintained an academic standing of 3.3 or above and have been in residence at Western at least two years.

The honor graduates will graduate cum laude (3.3 to 3.59), magna cum laude (3.6 to 3.79), or summa cum laude (3.8 to 4.0). To graduate summa cum laude, the student must have been in residence at Western during the entire baccalaureate program.

Honor graduates from Bowling Green and Warren County: Carol Joyce Bone, Patricia Ann Borders, Clifton Richard Bush, Barbara Ann Butler, Rebecca Gay Clagett, Robert Brown Denhardt, Marian Sue French, Jean Carver Fuller, Sara M. Hooks Laws, Jerry Wright Moulder, John Warren Oakes, and Barbara Ann Reynolds, all of Bowling Green; Mary Martin Netherton, Smiths Grove, and Lavonia Carole Johnson, Alvaton.

Other honor graduates from Kentucky are as follows: Suzanne Mason Willis, Cadiz; Roy Wilson Brent, Jr. and Anne Barger Coop, Campbellsville; Caro Jane Hooper, Caneyville; Patricia Doyle Sturgeon, Cave City; Michael James Jarvis, and Hubert C. Mooningham, Central City; and Gary Wayne Shuck, Corydon.

William Jerry Stodghill, Ear-

lington; Ann Smith Fletcher, Edmonston; Rita Hayes Riley, Elizabethtown; Linda Gail Adams, Fern Creek; Juanita Bolls Martin, Franklin; Evelyn Ann Parker, Glasgow; Joyce Ehlischide Walker, Greenville; K. Dale Leach, Hartford; Wendell Whitlow, Hardville; Paul Tivis Chandler, Henderson; Sandra Reed Culler, Hopkinsville; Peggy Ann Lefan, Kuttawa; and Betty Jane Skaggs, Greensburg.

Rebecca Clemons, Leitchfield; Franklin Edward Coffman, Livermore; Sandra Kay Hosay, Ronald Ray Jonson, Judith Kathryn Krish, John R. Mather, Jr., Patricia Skaggs Mathews, Carol Ann Meyer, Barbara Jo Owen, Janet Eleanor Porter, Peggy

President Kelly Thompson and Mrs. Thompson and the Faculty will entertain the graduates of the College, both Seniors and Master's candidates, and their wives and/or husbands at a reception at the Academic-Athletic Building, tomorrow afternoon, May 28. The hours are from four to five-thirty o'clock.

No formal invitations will be issued.

Nunn Selected Best Rifleman By Company B-3

Ronald Nunn

Ronald S. Nunn has been selected as the Outstanding Pershing Rifleman at Western by Pershing Rifles Company B-3. Nunn is a senior Government and Economics major.

Qualifications are based on the contributions a person has made to the enhancement of the ideals of the Pershing Rifles, and the way a person lives up to the ideals.

He plans to make the Army his career.

Jeorg Seitz Experienced A Most Eventful Youth

By William Hiner

Jeorg Seitz, a junior political science major who now calls Bowling Green his home, has witnessed more history than most of us will in a lifetime.

Jeorg is originally from East Germany, but he fled the Soviet Regime as a young boy via what is now the famous Berlin Wall Route to West Berlin. In 1948, during his stay in the orphanage where he and numerous other dislocated children survived the Berlin Blockade through the U.S. sponsored air-lift. During his stay in the orphanage, he met many American G.I.'s who told him a lot about the U.S., and it became Jeorg's wish to someday come to this country.

He applied for a United States visa in early 1956, and was promised that with a little luck he may get on the time grant quota.

However, before his wish materialized, Jeorg witnessed once more the brutal force of Russian Communism. While on a trip in Hungary in 1956, Jeorg was caught in the middle of the Hungarian uprising. There he saw men, women and children fight a desperate battle to rid their country of its communist masters. With the help of Hungarian freedom fighters, Jeorg and a prominent physician from Budapest found their way through the closely watched border, and after an exhausting march, arrived safely in Vienna.

Back in Berlin, Jeorg waited patiently for his permit to come to the U.S. and in Jan., 1957, the American Embassy called to inform him that a visa had been granted to him.

After living in the U.S. for one year, he joined the U.S. army and with completion of basic training, he was sent to Germany to become a member of Combat Command C.

While at Fort Hood, he was assigned a room with the well known American entertainer, Elvis Presley. Although their acquaintance was a short one, Jeorg and Elvis became quite good friends. They frequently shared work duties and living facilities. Jeorg often relates many of the experiences which they encountered while together in Frankfurt, Germany.

After his overseas tour expired, Jeorg was reassigned to Fort Campbell, Ky.

Jeorg was admitted to Western where he has once again distinguished himself on a scholastic basis.

He is a member of Beta Alpha Rho fraternity and is active in campus politics.

The Western student recently had a long-time wish fulfilled when he was granted his American citizenship.

It makes a person feel good to be an American when he talks to Jeorg and sees his pride in his new country.

Student Center Will Be Closed For The Summer

Reconstruction and expansion are the key words around campus these days. The Paul L. Garrett student center is presently under construction and will for students information will be closed to the summer in order to accommodate student eating facilities for the fall semester. Upon returning next fall their will be many changes taking place as well as continued construction at that time.

Parking lots that have been a constant dust problem to students in State and Central halls. The plans are for paving these parking areas this summer. This plus many new curbs, sidewalks and landscaping are on the summer agenda. Most of this landscaping will take place under the direction of the new landscaping artist, Mr. Claude Threlkeld.

Last Wednesday the final drawings of New Library were taken to Frankfort by the Architect, Joseph P. Wilk and the director of the service department and special superintendent on the new buildings, Mr. L. T. Smith. These drawings will undergo final inspection at which time bids will be opened

Lifeguards Save Student In A-A Pool

Tragedy was averted last Thursday when lifeguards pulled an unconscious Western football player from the Academic-Athletic Building pool and were able to revive him.

James Finnell, a 19 year-old freshman from Shively, was already unconscious when Mike Taylor, one of two lifeguards on duty at the pool, pulled him from the water.

Finnell, reported to be an excellent swimmer, had made several trips under water across the Olympic-sized pool with no difficulty.

After getting him from the water, Taylor, a 19-year-old Central Hall resident from Evansville, Ind., and the other lifeguard, Richard Nau, 20, also a Central resident from Evansville, proceeded to administer artificial respiration.

Finnell is said to have already been regaining consciousness when Bowling Green city firemen arrived at the pool with a respirator.

He was then taken to City-County Hospital where he was examined and released. The examining physician, Dr. R. O. C. Green, said later that Finnell would be fine after some rest, and assistant football coach Frank Griffin said Finnell appears to be feeling no ill effects from the incident.

The sister of Patrick Henry is buried in Smith's Grove Cemetery off U.S. 31-W near Bowling Green.

TV Monopoly

By JEANNE AINSWORTH

An unfortunate lack of consideration is prevalent among campus TV watchers. In a dorm where one TV is furnished for the entertainment of a few hundred students, the programs to be viewed are dictated by a handful. If anyone questions the choice of shows, he is quickly informed by the monopoly that there is nothing else on. Therefore, he can either watch that program or go back to his room and brood about the show he wanted to watch.

It is unfortunate for those who happen to like Garry Moore or Andy Williams, because they must invariably endure "The Fugitive," even though the same boring plot occurs every week. Those who are brave enough to admit that they might prefer to watch a news program or a documentary once in a while are completely ignored.

It is an exceptionally annoying experience for the person who enjoys "Arrest and Trial" on Sunday night, to find that show arrested right in the middle. The Cartwrights of Bonanza come blazing across the screen, while those persons interested in the "Trial" portion are left hanging in the air. For those who dislike Dr. Kildare and are afraid to admit it, the case is hopeless; in fact, many girls are unaware that any other program even appears at that time.

The viewer is fed a steady diet of "The Nurses" and "Ben Casey" whether he likes it or not. The poor soul who is brave enough to make a dissenting remark about the program being watched is scorned and stared at until he is finally forced out of the room entirely.

A variety of shows would benefit everyone. There are many programs offering excellent entertainment to the public every week, and these shows should be taken advantage of by the college students. The educational value and current information offered in TV news specials and documentaries should be taken into consideration when one selects a show. In the future, a "TV Guide" kept handy would help in the selection of programs. Certain worthwhile reports such as the Huntley-Brinkley newscasts should become a weekly must.

Why must everyone in the dorms be forced to watch the same shows, week after week, or give up TV watching entirely, simply because this is the night that so-and-so is on?

Double Your Pleasure And You'll Double Your Fun...

By LARECEA GIBBS

Girls, if you should look up the steps of Cherry Hall and see a tall, dark, and handsome boy and should turn around and see that same boy approaching from behind you, don't take off to the doctor in a panic.

Chances are that you are not "seeing things", and final exams are not causing you to "go nuts."

Turn and look again. It is probably one of Western's many sets of twins.

Seven sets of male twins are on campus, and of these, three sets are identical.

The boys on campus might also experience this panic. At least three sets of twin girls are enrolled in Western. One set is identical, one looks enough alike to confuse you, and the other — well you would never guess that they are twins. It all adds up to more confusion.

Most of the twins say they enjoy leading their double life, but all admit that there are problems at times. Their number one problem is that people often think of them as a unit instead of individuals. However, they seem to believe that the fun of watching people's expressions when they learn they are twins is worth all problems. This is especially true of identical twins. They enjoy most the fun of confusing their professors in class.

Richard and Thomas Beck

Richard and Thomas Beck, sophomores, are from Louisville. They are alike in almost every way. Both are art majors and hope to work in industrial design. They have all their classes together and make the same grades. They are so much alike that their I.Q.'s are identical. On three different I.Q. tests, both have made identical scores.

Fifth cousins of U.S. Grant, the twins work each summer with General Electric in Louisville, and enjoy building model designs of sports cars.

Richard has been recognized as outstanding in this field. He has entered many of his originally designed model cars in contests, and recently won a $1,000 scholarship. The money was won in the Fisher Body Craftsman contest and is helping him finance his studies here at Western. He has also won one national award, 71 state awards, and six regional awards, which includes entries from Kentucky, Tennessee, and North and South Carolina.

Thomas and Richard say that one of their biggest problems is having to buy two of everything, but "it's worth it to terrorize teachers in class."

Kaye and Daye Young

Brenda Kaye and Carolyn Daye Young are identical twins from Richlandville.

Sophomores majoring in home economics, they have all their classes together, and usually make the same grades.

While in high school at Richlandville, Daye graduated with honors as valedictorian; Kaye was salutatorian. Both girls are members of the Iva Scott Home Economics Club, and Daye also received the distinction of being a 3.5 winner this fall. Both list their hobbies as sewing, and make most of their clothes themselves. However, they say that one of their biggest problems is buying clothes which are alike, especially shoes.

Kaye, who is left handed, and Daye, say they can often tell what the other is thinking. While one is talking to someone, they are often told that the other twin has already told them the same thing. Kaye says this is a problem, since she often has to stop what she is saying in the middle of a conversation. This summer both girls will return to their jobs as saleswomen and hope to return to Western in the fall to work on their teacher's certificates.

Bob and Norb Getty

Robert and Norbert Getty are freshmen elementary education majors from Boone County. Bob and Norb, as they prefer to be called, are also identical. Bob played guard, and Norb played end on the freshman football team this fall. They both have a good sense of humor, as evidenced when they listed as one of their hobbies "wrecking cars." Norb says that he also likes to cook and admits that he is good at it. Both will return to jobs as construction workers this summer.

Jack and Jenks Britt

Jack and Jenks Britt are two well-known identical twins on campus. Majoring in pre-vet, Graduating Seniors: As June 5 draws near, you probably have little time to reminisce. But, if you did, what would your reflections be?

Perhaps you consider your college career to have been as complete as possible, or perhaps not. Maybe you feel that you are completely prepared for the "cold, cruel world" which you face, but maybe you don't.

I'm sure that we all can look back with a bit of regret, but of course it's too late to worry about it now. The important thing is to profit from this regret and to go forward with a new strength.

It could be said that you are now at the door of life. The manner in which you enter "life" and journey through it is entirely up to you. You have been well prepared for this journey by Western. Take advantage of the training which you have received during the past four years, and have a safe journey. Western will forever be behind you, aiding you in any way.

Hilltopic

On behalf of the Herald editorial staff, I take this opportunity to thank everyone who has cooperated with us this year to make the Herald a better school paper, and one that has served you not only this year, but one that will continue to serve you in the years to come.

Veni, Vidi, Vici

By MARILYN WEISSER

For a year the question among Western students has been "When are nationals coming to Western?" Many who asked that question have gone, but for those who remain, national fraternities have become a reality. The realization of a need has been recognized and answered — the progress is soon to follow.

With the growth of the student population, the banding together in social groups was inevitable. Some of the groups were founded as far back as 1830, others as recently as 1960. These groups struggled for existence and won the battle for recognition in 1963. At this time Western recognized five sororities and fourteen fraternities to be under the supervision of a Panhellenic Council and an Inter-Fraternity Council respectively.

After a year probationary period, the next step in the progress for the fraternities was to look toward national affiliation. Through the combined efforts of the administration, faculty, and students, Western can now experience another first in its already outstanding history.

The fraternities that have formed colonies at the college are Alpha Gamma Rho, Lambda Chi Alpha, Sigma Nu, and Kappa Sigma.

The title of a national fraternity in itself does not make a successful group. The group must contain in itself the potential and the desire.

Students affiliated with Greek organizations must be ready and willing to do their part in bringing additional nationals to Western. Unity is a requisite for success — the progress must not stop here.

Looking Backward

Four years ago — Alice Chumbley is named 1960 Miss Kentucky . . . Skaggs and Covington to head Herald staff for 1960-61 . . . 270 will get degrees at spring commencement . . . Nine students admitted to med and dental schools . . . Western net crew wins eighth OVC championship in last eleven years. Golf team places second in OVC.

Six years ago — Conn electric organ installed in Van Meter . . . Coach Diddle recovers from recent operation . . . Jimmy Feix, BS '53, MA '58, joins Physical Education department staff . . . Courier magazine features campus . . . SFC Robert Gour added to ROTC staff . . . College High's Dan Hamner has state broad jump title . . . Topper netmen take OVC tournament.

Eight years ago — H. B. Gray, part time Western instructor dies . . . Western swimming pool opened for first time during a regular spring semester . . . Summer theatre workshop offered for first time . . . Hard work by Mrs. Garrett makes Hill more beautiful.

Nine years ago — Dr. Elvis J. Stahr Jr. and Rev. George Riggs to address June graduates . . . 46 ROTC cadets will receive commissions . . . Western's representative to the Mountain Laurel festival is Sue Lynch, who went on to be crowned queen . . . 25 new Western signs are placed on highways leading into Bowling Green and on local streets . . . Debating team ends busy season.

Eleven years ago — Dr. Gordon Wilson, head of English dept. and Mrs. R. K. Wilgus, also of English dept., attend the joint meeting of Kentucky Folklore society and the Mississippi Valley Historical society.

Ready for the Mt. Laurel Festival is Western's representative, Sandy Stuart. Sandy is modeling the gown she will wear at the festival. Her wardrobe is being sponsored by the Citizens Bank, the Daily News and Plaza Fashions, Leachman Motors and Western will furnish the transportation. Sandy's escort will be Bernard Madison, a Western graduate, and now a graduate student at the University of Kentucky. The Herald editor and her escort will leave for Pineville tomorrow morning.

Herald To Recognize Outstanding Journalist

The first College Heights Herald annual awards dinner will convene tonight at 7 o'clock at Western Hills Restaurant. During the dinner a former member of the Herald staff will be presented an award for outstanding contributions to journalism.

The honoree will be chosen by a designated committee whose

Training School Program Grows

An expanded academic program for the 1964 summer term has been announced by Mr. James Carpenter, director of College high school.

High school credit will be offered in algebra, American history, art, French I, Spanish I, biology, chemistry, junior high English, English I, II, III, and IV, junior high mathematics, mechanical drawing, plane geometry, music exploration, typing, general business, world history, electronics and general industrial arts. Physical education (9-10), and freshman health have also been added to the original schedule.

Strengthening work will be offered for grades one through eight. Programs in art, music, and remedial reading will also be continued.

selection will not be revealed until the time of the presentation.

Certain staff awards will be made during the evening, among which will be those to the most outstanding Herald feature writer.

Serving as master of ceremonies will be Dr. Willson Wood, head of the English department.

It is expected that many former Herald editors, business managers, and reporters will attend the dinner, as well as those who are currently on the staff.

Band To Present Show Tomorrow

The time?—6:15 p.m. tomorrow evening.

The place?—the football stadium.

The setting?—the sky as a Big Top featuring Western's Mr. Edward A. Knob and marching band.

The mood?—strictly Hill-top.

The numbers?—"Cowboy Rhapsody," "Carnival Day in New Orleans," "Jazz Manteca," "Courier-Journal March," "His Excellency," and many others.

The audience?—that is the purpose of this article, COME and LISTEN and RELAX!!!

Faculty Members Report On Research Progress

Eleven faculty members and one former member doing research under grants from the Faculty Research Committee have made progress reports to the committee.

Reports indicate that the grants have aided directly or indirectly in the preparation of several articles which have been or will be published by the recipients.

Dr. M. W. Russell, head of the Physics department, reported on the progress of the mathematical treatment of the grain yield of corn as it relates to land area, leaf area, and total plant weight.

Danish Politics

Dr. William E. Laux, Business and Government department, has the possibility of publication of three articles on Danish political party behavior and political influences in Danish groups.

Dr. E. H. Canon has assembled information on the history of the First Christian Church of Bowling Green, including the names of all members who have served the congregations since its beginning in 1845; the date, costs, and locations of the houses of worship that have been used over the years; a collection of photographs; and official minutes of various meetings.

"The French in Kentucky" by Miss Marjorie Clagett is now two thirds completed. The complete work, an index of names, claims, and dates, is now available in the periodical room of the library on microfilm.

Collograph

Mr. William Loy, now assistant professor in the Department of Fine Arts at the University of Tennessee, has recently had an article published in Art Education on collograph. Mr. Loy began his study on collograph when he received a grant from the Faculty Research Committee while he was a member of the Western's faculty.

Other reports were from Mr. James E. House, Jr., Chemistry; Dr. Carlton Jackson, History; Dr. Joseph W. Morris, Education; Dr. George Lar, guidance counselor of the Training School; Dr. Robert Obojski, English; Dr. John M. Chamberlain, Chemistry; and Dr. William W. Norris, Jr., Biology.

Double Your Pleasure And Fun

and agriculture, they are sophomores from Bowling Green. Both are members of Alpha Gamma Rho fraternity and have won many awards in dairy judging. They are members of Western's dairy judging team and will travel with the team this fall. Jack was recently elected vice-president of the Inter-Fraternity Council on campus.

Very few people can tell the Britt twins apart, and this includes their grandparents who live with them. Jack and Jenks tell some amusing stories concerning this. When small, both hated to take baths, so they worked out a system. They would decide which would take the bath on a certain night, then the same twin would take both baths. This procedure was reversed the next night.

Because their parents often got the twins confused, Jenks often was punished for things that Jack did. He tells of the time when Jack was jumping on the bed. Their father told him to get down or he would get spanked. Jack quietly did as his Dad said, but Jenks did not know of the threat. He promptly decided the bed looked inviting and proceeded to jump. That is, until his father returned. Thinking that Jenks was Jack whom he had just told to get down, he began the punishment which was a good hard spanking.

When Jenks had to go to the hospital to have a cyst removed from a lung, Jack developed a cyst on the gum and had to have it removed also. Both boys said that they are very close, and being a twin is all fun with no problems at all. They love to fool people and especially dates. So, girls, if Jack asks you for a date, don't be surprised if Jenks shows up and you don't really know who is who. In fact, they are so much alike, this reporter may have been calling Jack, Jenks, and Jenks Jack. Confusing?

Rafe and Cooper Boldrick are juniors from Springfield. Rafe is majoring in business management and hopes to be an office manager. Cooper is a chemistry major and both are members of Phi Phi Kappa fraternity, Tri-County club, and Newman Hall.

Rafe and Cooper are fraternal twins and do not look alike. Rafe was chosen Mr. Freshman in '61 and works at the House of Italy in his spare time. Cooper teaches at the St. Joseph parish with an emergency certificate during his spare time. The boys have a very competitive spirit with one another. They list as their favorite hobby, beating each other on the golf course.

Rita and Freda Ellis look very much alike although they are fraternal twins. Both are junior home economic majors from Morgantown. They are active members of the Iva Scott Home Economics club, and both work part-time at the library.

Rita and Freda say that one of their biggest problems is that people might think they are "stuck-up."

Many people cannot tell them apart; and they speak to Freda, thinking they are speaking to one's time getting to know. them and so, at times, she may not seem too friendly. If this happens to you, don't feel hurt; just learn who is who.

Both girls say they enjoy all sports except wrestling and boxing, and enjoy listening to music. They enjoy knitting and proudly display some of the things they have made.

Anne and Cathy Binkley are two fascinating girls worth anyone's time getting to know. Both are freshmen majoring in Special Education and Elementary Education.

Anne, who is secretary of the freshman class, plans upon graduation, to teach the mentally retarded. Each summer she works with the handicapped in her hometown, Lexington. Through her efforts, she has helped the hospital and clinic in Lexington to receive additional funds for further work this summer. Although she cannot become director of the funds until graduation, she will serve as an assistant director of a department this summer.

Cathy says that she is very proud of her twin and enjoys helping her in some of her work. Cathy has an "adopted sister" at the hospital in Lexington. Several young people in this area adopt someone at the hospital who has no one to him. They carry gifts to these patients at Christmas, Easter, and other holidays. Cathy says that one of her happiest moments was when her "adopted sister", a middle aged woman, was finally able to remember her name.

Both girls enjoy sewing and make most of their clothes. They say that they are especially close, and enjoy being a twin because it gives them the chance to meet so many other twins.

Harel and Darel Carrier are twins who will be long remembered by students of Western. Sons of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Carrier of Bristow, they are senior physical education majors. Both of the Carrier twins are outstanding because of their sincerity and friendliness, and have contributed much to the spirit of this campus.

Harel plans to coach this fall, and Darel will be playing professional basketball this summer. While playing basketball for Western, Darel received many honors including being named on the Helm's Foundation All-America team. These are things which Western fans will remember.

They will remember most the boys who achieved great fame at Western, but who remained the same boys they were upon entering Western.

So students, don't become too bewildered upon meeting these twins on campus. Be proud of them for all are contributing much to our motto, "The Spirit Makes the Master."

AAUW Hosts Sr. Women At Reception

Thirty senior women attended the American Association of University Women's coffee and social hour as prospective members last Thursday evening in the Faculty House. Approximately 90 members and guests were present.

This organization is devoted to establishing and maintaining the highest educational standards for women. Miss Imogene Simpson of the Library Science department is the local president.

All women who hold baccalaureate or higher degrees from colleges and universities on the AAUW qualified list may join the association. Annual dues are $10.

The Bowling Green branch of AAUW has been in existence for 7 years, but Western graduates have been eligible to join only since November, 1963. At that time Western was recognized and placed on the approved list of schools.

Speakers this past year included Mrs. Louise Kirtley, Owensboro lawyer; Dr. Paul E. Power of the Education department; Dr. Charles Shedd, head of the Psychology department; and Dr. H. L. Stephens, head of the Biology department.

The local chapter was host to a state workshop in September; and in December Dr. Eleanor F. Dolan of Washington D. C., AAUW Staff Associate in Higher Education and Director of Educational Foundation Research, visited Western informing the group of the AAUW scholarship program and other projects.

Dr. Lillian Johnson, dean of students at the University of Cincinnati and a former Western instructor, spoke at the annual dinner in April.

The community project this year was giving books and money to the Bowling Green Public Library. The local chapter also sponsors the AAUW Oratorical contest for junior and senior women.

Anyone interested in joining AAUW or desiring more information should contact or write Miss Simpson, Library Science department, Library, Western.

Pre-Medical Fraternity Holds Spring Banquet

The Western Honorary Pre-Medical fraternity held its annual spring banquet at the Holiday Inn May 8.

George Smith, president of the fraternity, presided.

Guest speaker for the evening was Dr. Carl Rutledge, head of the pathology laboratory at the Bowling Green-Warren County Hospital.

SNEA Scholarship Fund Has Been Raised To $2363

A quarter drive has boosted the SNEA Scholarship Fund to $2363. Members are striving to finish the year with $2400.

At the beginning of this year $1497 was in the fund. Thriftiness in chapter spending and contributions from alumni, faculty, and students are responsible for the $866 added this year. This is the largest amount that has ever been added to the fund in one year.

Four scholarships of $25 each have been awarded from the accrued interest on the principal since the fund was established in 1961. Recipients were Kay Bledsoe, December, 1962, and Clarence Gamble, Don Givens, and Ray Young, December, 1963.

If the fund continues to grow at the present rate, more scholarships of larger amounts will be available in the future for deserving students. Thirty applications were received this year.

The quarter drive has added

$863 to the fund. It is hoped that all faculty and many students will contribute this small amount.

Contributions may be given to Dr. Mary I. Cole, room 130, Cherry Hall, or Dr. Tate C. Page, room 135, Cherry Hall. Alumni may address their contributions to the SNEA Scholarship Fund, c/o Education Department. Among the alumni who have made substantial contributions are Louise Combs, Mae and Harvey Dixon, Margaret Sutton, Zelma Miles, Bernadine Steele, Margaret Page, Dorothy Peterson, Rose Marie Wilson, Martha Burn, Carol Deweese, Brenda Johnson, Carolyn Adair, and Junaita Meredith.

Faculty members who have made sizable contributions are Tate C. Page, E. G. Monroe, Lurene Gibson, Mary I. Cole, T. O. Hall, Harold Heppler, James Carpenter, and Virginia Harvin.

Have you contributed yet?

My "30"

Well, the time has finally come. This will be the last column I will write for the Herald, and next year someone else will have his name at the top of this column. It will be his responsibility to see that all news in the world of Western sports gets fair and accurate coverage.

All in all, it's been fun for the past three years. It's easy to write about a winner and hard to write about a loser. And during this course of time Western has had both winning and losing teams in sports.

It is easy to please some of the people some of the time, but it is hard to please all the people all the time.

Western participates in six varsity athletics, and that means we have six different coaches. It's almost impossible to please six coaches all the time.

There Are Rewards—

There are some rewards. Many long and weary hours have been spent either by car, bus, or plane, traveling with Western's athletic teams. Each coach of each sport has helped make it possible for me to have seen more than my share of Western's varsity athletics in the past three years.

There is the satisfaction involved with people whom you become associated. You enjoy the many stories and anecdotes learned while traveling to and from games. You enjoy it when you are accepted into the confidence of both players and coaches, and the information you receive which cannot be printed in so many words.

Build Support

A sports editor realizes that one of his duties is to attempt to build student support for the athletic teams.

I must say that Western fans are the most loyal of any I have ever seen. Not that I have made any great contribution to this cause, but it's gratifying to both players and their coach to know that while they are putting their jobs on public display, each and every student is behind them.

My successor, Al Stilley, brings to you a wide and varied sports background which he will in due time share with you through his stories on Western athletics.

My personal thanks to everyone who has helped make this column what I hope has become interesting reading.

Tennis Outlook Bright For Next Several Years

By Al Stilley

With the recent completion of the 1964 OVC tennis tourney, Western's head coach Ted Hornback has served notice to the rest of the league.

"I'm looking forward to next season," Hornback began, "because the team is going to be real tough to beat — not only next year — but for years to come."

Western's tennis fortunes were clouded when Murray's Racers wrestled the net crown from defending champion Western on the Topper courts. Coach Hornback and his sparkling netmen, after compiling a 11-4 season mark, were seeking their 11th OVC crown in 16 years.

But the Toppers again will be placed in the contending role for the 1965 title go.

Losing only two seniors (Larry Whitaker and Bobby Smith) Western will wield racquets with four returnees and the brightest tennis prospect in Western's history, Louisville's Jackie Cooper.

"Coop", a transfer from Miami, Fla., brings one international, two national, and two Kentucky tennis crowns to Western. Cooper has played in the United States Lawn Tennis Association National Championships at Forest Hills, losing in the second round for two years. Davis Cup hero Dennis Ralston knocked him out in 1962.

The St. Xavier graduate should more than adequately take up the slack when Whitaker and Smith graduate this year. Whitaker, the OVC's No. 1 singles champion for two straight years, closed his collegiate career by downing Murray's Bill Bowen for the crown. The Buckeye native dropped only one OVC match while at

Bear's Quarterback Bill Wade Speaks In E. A. Diddle Arena To Student Body

By Al Stilley

Professional football's world champion quarterback Bill Wade leaned against the E. A. Diddle Arena platform and looked forward to the coming season.

"The Bears (Chicago) will be trying for an unprecedented three straight world championships," began the tall, crane-like signal-caller. "But our responsibilities will be doubled because everyone will be out for us."

No team in the National Football League's history has ever won the title three consecutive years. In fact, the Bears won the 1964 championship 14-10 with a minimum offensive and maximum defensive effort against the aging New York Giants.

After addressing the Topper student body Wednesday, Wade said, "In the pro title game, I would liked to have played it more wide open. But the weather conditions were such that we played a deliberate game."

In fact, the title go was so deliberate that the Bears gained only 93 yards through the Giant crack defensive wall and 129 yards on only 10 of 28 pass completions. Wade shook his way loose for 12 yards on a broken pass pattern for the Bears' longest offensive run of the game.

For now, the title game is history. The ex-Vanderbilt passing king can look forward to the coming season and can feel the challenge of a better balanced league.

Wade commented, "The off-season trades have definitely strengthened our division." He quickly added, "Those (Baltimore) Colts should be very strong because they have been sniffing for another title for too long."

"The Bears will improve, and I'm looking forward to seeing what All-American Billy Martin (Georgia Tech) can do for us."

While speaking to Western's student body, Wade became the

Western Claims Two OVC Conference Titles

By Larry Dykes, Herald Sports Editor

Once again another sports year has come to an end. Looking back, it has been a successful one. Only one other school can claim more than one Ohio Valley Conference championship; Western has two.

The football team did itself justice. They went undefeated, won the OVC, and then walloped the Coast Guard Academy 27-0 in the Tangerine Bowl.

However, gone will be some outstanding leaders such as co-captains Harold Chambers and Joe Bugel, and linebacker John Mutchler. With the exception of Carson Culler, the starting backfield will return, along with one of the most feared linebackers in the conference, Dale Lindsey. Up front, such stalwarts as Stan Napper, Ed Crum, Tom Murrell and Hugh Sturgeon will return. They, plus some up and coming Freshman make Western a pre-season favorite to capture the OVC crown for the second straight year.

In basketball, Darel Carrier, the Hilltoppers' All-America guard will be sorely missed. However, the Toppers had a cracker-jack freshman team led by Clem Haskins, who could become one of Western's greatest. Also not returning will be Ray Keeton, who quit school following last year's cage season.

This will be Coach Diddle's last year as a coach and the winningest coach in the nation isn't likely to go out with a losing season.

In the spring sports and cross-country (which is run in the fall) Western is certainly going to be tougher. Jackie Cooper, one of the best tennis players in the nation, will be eligible next spring.

In track, if two of Coach Ecker's Olympic hopefuls show up in September, the Hilltopper harriers will be hard to catch, and track is a fast sport. Another OVC title could be in store for the scrappy trackmen.

In golf, the linksmen were a predominately-freshman laden team. Only one senior, Terry Jones, was on the squad. They made a gallant try to upset Middle Tennessee in the final meet, and finished their regular season play with a perfect 12-0 record.

This year's baseball team had a world of ability, but could never get going. In Frank Brent, Mike Ringo and Brown Smith, all of whom will be returning, the Toppers have three of the best pitchers in the conference.

The 64-65 outlook is definitely going to be better and each Western athletic team will be improved. However, the rest of the conference teams will also be better and it again will be a survival of the fittest.

Bear's Bill Wade

first football player to speak in the Diddle Arena. The ex-Southeastern Conference record breaker constantly reminded his audience that "a vital part of success is failure."

Wade also made the following points clear to those sitting in the arena:

"As an athlete, you are subjected to criticism, but always remember those who criticize are not playing the game.

"The defeats are those which have strengthened me, if the cause is worthy.

"Athletics has been a motivating factor for me.

"The greatest failure of this county, in an era of television and scientific achievement, was the assassination of President John F. Kennedy."

Yes, Bill Wade knows a player must obey the rules to win and that failure is a part of success. After 26 years of athletic competition, Bill Wade, with both elbows bleeding and himself being subjected to immense pressure, became a part of a championship team.

It was Wade who scored the Bears' two touchdowns in the title game, which was won with his guiding touch. Championships are won with nothing less than a fine quarterback, one like Wade.

But the black-haired gentleman quarterback knows his future. Throughout his brief appearance on the Western campus, Wade held in his right hand a Bible.

In the spring-time heat, Westerners became aware that on a bitter cold (6 degrees) December afternoon, in Chicago's Wrigley Field a "nice guy" became a champion.

Intramural Corner

Sigma Nu fraternity (Omicron Kappa Alpha) set an intramural school record by compiling a total of 209½ points to win the intramural participation trophy. Under the leadership of John Blair, Western's intramural program has really progressed this year.

Listed below are the top five finishers for the participation trophy:

Sigma Nu	209½
Delta Kappa Nu	197½
Jefferson County	188
Lambda Chi Alpha	166
Sigma Phi Alpha	165

Ecker Ready For European Track Journey

Western track coach Tom Ecker will leave next week on a European tour which will take him to Finland, Sweden and Iceland.

Before leaving for Europe Ecker will be an instructor at a track clinic which will be held on the campus of Slippery Rock State College in Slippery Rock, Pa.

This clinic is sponsored by the National Track and Field Coaching Clinic under the auspices of the United States State Department.

While in Slippery Rock, Ecker will teach his method of interval training, as well as exchanges, sprint starting, and running.

Other instructors at the clinic will be Fred Wilt, former Olympic distance runner, and John Powell, former head coach of the South Africa Olympic Team and currently a member of the physical education faculty at the University of Illinois.

Ecker will leave Slippery Rock for Washington, D.C. for a briefing by the State Department before departing for Helsinki, Finland.

While in Finland, Ecker will be an American Specialist in track and field. He will remain in Finland where he will travel throughout the country teaching his methods of track and field to coaches and athletes.

From July 5 to August 1, he will journey to Stockholm, Sweden, and from there to Reykjavik, Iceland, where he will be doing the same type work as in Finland.

He will return to the United States on August 25.

Spring Athletes Feted

Art Guepe, Ohio Valley Conference commissioner, was the principal speaker at a banquet honoring Western's spring sports teams Tuesday night, May 26, at the Paul L. Garrett Student Center.

Tennis Future Outlook Bright

Western and, this year, fought Kentucky's top netter John Evans of Bellarmine before losing 6-4, 3-6, 6-2.

In Hornback's opinion, "Whitaker did a real good job for us at singles throughout his career at Western."

Bobby Smith, who teamed with Whitaker to win the 1963 No. 1 doubles crown, was eliminated in the first round of OVC singles play by the new titlist Henry Baughman of Murray.

Smith and Whitaker finished in the runner-up slot for the 1964 No. 1 doubles title, losing to Murray's Baughman-Bowen combo, 6-2, 5-7, 7-5.

Freshman Jim Malone, became the Toppers' only double 1964 OVC gold medal winner by defeating Murray's Charles Champion for the No. 2 singles title and teaming with Tom Bohlinger to dump Middle Tennessee's Dick Burch and Allen Rose.

"For a freshman, Jim has done an outstanding job," Hornback added. "The tennis future looks great for him and also for Western."

Returning with Malone will be sophomore OVC No. 4 singles runner-up Larry Peeno, who went to the OVC finals with a little skill and lots of spirit and desire. Before coming to Western last fall, Peeno attended night school at the University of Wichita and had never played competitive tennis.

Crowd-pleaser Bill Beverly, an Ashland freshman, won the No. 5 singles title on guts and determination after getting his eyes open for playing tennis.

The upstart Beverly eliminated Eastern's Jerry Brown for the title and teamed with Peeno to finish second in the No. 3 doubles competition. Beverly's 6-8, 6-3, 6-1 OVC title win was an example of his never-ending desire to win.

Never one to complain about his small 5-6½ size, the Beatie-topped Beverly has been described by Coach Hornback as being "as small as a cake of soap before its last washing."

Sophomore Tom Bohlinger, "a dedicated and hard worker," will return next year, after teaming with Malone to cop the No. 2 OVC doubles title and finishing runner-up in the No. 6 singles competition to Murray's Chuck Close.

In summing up the past year, Hornback said, "I'm pleased with my 11-4 season record. I'm disappointed in getting so close to winning the OVC title and not getting it — just one or two points would have meant victory."

And just to make his strawberries taste better next year, Hornback and his netters will be out to regain those one or two points.

Dear Gals,

The old hour glass says "it's later than you think." To put it bluntly, those old exams are right here upon us, so before you tackle the books and burn all the midnight oil, let us have just one of your moments to say . . . "Thank You."

It's been a wonderful "school year" at the "FASHION HOUSE." We've enjoyed each and every one of you whom it has been our pleasure to know and help. To the seniors who are leaving, we wish "Godspeed" and to the ones coming back in June or September, you know the "red carpet" treatment will always be waiting for you at the FASHION HOUSE.

Most sincerely,

Thomas Boone Named Director Of Planetarium

Daniel Boone's grand-nephew, Thomas E. Boone, BS'48, MA '50 has been appointed director of the Louisville Rauch Memorial planetarium.

Boone, of Elkton, has a bachelor's degree in biology and a master's degree in education from Western and has done other graduate work at Vanderbilt University, Nashville.

He will assume his new duties June 15, and will replace Ben D. Hall who has accepted a position with the Houston Museum of Natural Science in Texas.

Boone formerly did directing of boys' work for the YMCA of Nashville, Tennessee; and is a former field scout executive for the Boy Scouts of America. He is a graduate of the Scout's training school in Medham, New Jersey.

He is presently a science instructor at the Louisville Collegiate School.

Alpha Gamma Rho recently held its first annual Pink-Rose Dance. Eleven newly initiated members of AGR's were: Jimmy Claycomb, Tom Corley, Bob Cole, Norman Duncan, Tom Howard, James Clater, Bill Norris, Tony Harvey, Ken Raybourne, Dwight Cline, and Billy Tucker. The highlight of the evening was the crowning of the Alpha Gamma Rho Sweetheart, Miss Martha Barnes. Awards were made to the Outstanding Pledge, Jimmy Claycomb, and the Outstanding Active, Clarke Fenimore.

The AGR's are now working toward the selection of the graduating high school senior to whom they will present a one-year scholarship at Western for the 1964-65 school year.

PHI PHI KAPPA

The Phi Phi Kappas were rather quiet for a couple of weeks until the annual spring formal Saturday night. The Chevelles entertained at Detrex following a banquet at Western Hills.

Currently much time is being spent meeting with national fraternities in anticipation of establishing a colony in the near future.

A recent addition to the fraternity is Mr. Sam Pass, a bassett hound that has become the official mascot.

SIGMA NU

Sigma Nu, formerly Omicron Kappa Alpha Fraternity, had its election of officers last week. Those elected to office were: Jack Doyle, president; Phil Kirk, vice-president; Merle Stoner, recording secretary; Reed Morgan and George Wilson, corresponding secretaries; Virgil Toone, sgt.-at-arms; Jack Doyle and Virgil Toone, IFC representatives; John Bottorff, chaplain; Jack Leech, social chairman; and Jay Horton, intramural representative.

ZETA TAU OMEGA

"Younger Than Springtime" was the theme for the sixth annual spring formal of the Zeta Tau Omega Sorority held at Western Hills, featuring the Rhythmaires.

The evening began with the invocation by Amelia Kessler. After a delightful meal Anne Mansfield introduced the guests. This was followed by the presentation of the best pledge award to Mary Louise Jones. Also this year an award for the most outstanding senior was presented to Sherrill Washer. The program was concluded by the reading of the prophecy by the in-coming President Roslee Simone.

To top off a wonderful evening the first Zeta king, Ronnie Roberts, was crowned.

BETA ALPHA RHO

The Beta Alpha Rho fraternity, formerly Baron's club, held its election of officers for the thirtieth year. The newly elected officers include: Ed Hidenrite, president; Bill Kirby, vice-president; Rick Ackerman, recording secretary; Dave Hall, treasurer; Jim McCoy, sergeant at arms; and Johnny Webb, historian. These newly elected officers took over their jobs immediately.

LAMBDA SIGMA EPSILON

Lambda Sigma Epsilon recently held its annual spring formal at the Indian Hills country club.

LSE sweetheart Miss Sandy Cates was crowned queen and Miss Judy Mayfield of College High was honored as L S E princess.

Entertainment for the evening was provided by the "Chevelles."

Players Presentation Of "The Boor" Satirical Hit

Often, when a play is presented in subtle and sophisticated humor it takes a slapstick incident to put the audience into humorous appreciation.

Such was the case of Anton Chekov's "The Boor," presented recently in Snell Hall auditorium.

In spite of the incidents, small laughs were emitted by the audience in appreciation for the less obvious comedy. Leading lady Carol Robertson's "Katherine Hepburn type of traumatic tears" were appreciated by many. Chekov's satirical approach to a hero was interpreted precisely as that by Bill Christie.

However, the curtain calls were spontaneous reaction to an evening of worthwhile entertainment as was evidenced by the play winning the Topper Award for the best studio production of the year. Shirley Lanham was the student director with Miss Mary Ellen Pitts as faculty advisor.

Wade Named To Parole Board

A. Glenn Wade, BS '38, of Hopkinsville, became the fifth member of the State Parole Board April 29. The Board was extended from three to five members by Governor Combs last October in concurrence by a special session of the General Assembly. Judge Lucille Hurt, Louisville, was the fourth member to be appointed, taking membership after appointment by Governor Combs last fall.

Wade is a native of Christian County, a former teacher of vocational agriculture, and Air Force navigator during World War II. His plane was shot down during a mission over Germany in January, 1943, and he was a prisoner of war for 27 months.

Wade attended graduate school at the University of Kentucky and for several years has been a businessman as well as a teacher. He is married and has three sons.

Topper Tables

WELL

Don't forget that this Friday, May 29, we are giving away THREE FREE MEALS. In case you have forgotten the rules, all you have to do is give your name to the Cashier.

The STARS were really out last week . . . That is the STARS of the Western Players. The Players had a Feast at which various members were Awarded for past Feats. WESTERN HILLS, Bowling Green's Hollywood Bowl, was the scene where the "Oscars" were presented. Those receiving Awards were—Ace Raymond for Stage Management; Sandra Jones for Best Script Assistant; Terry Childress for Best Lighting; Carl Robertson for Best Props Job; Craig Williamson for Our Favorite Juvenile; Susan Pearson for Most Outstanding Freshman; Jerry Hensley for Most Cooperative Member; Shirley Lanham for the Best Studio Production, "The Boor"; Toni Martin, Beta, Awarded for the Best Supporting Actress; Allen Miller, KAPPA SIG, Awarded for the Best Supporting Actor; Jolly Jacques for The Best Actress; and Frank Hammond for the Best Actor. I am sure that Dr. Russell Miller is very proud of his Players.

Other STARS that were out were—Jim Stivers, Phil Whiteside, Sue McGuffey, Janice Perkins, Lynn Sutherland, Charlene Wilder, Frances Henderson, Nancy Ford, Sherry Sohn, Carolyn Sparks, Giney Munster, Betas—Pat Hahn, Bonnie McCredie, Judy Sprague, and Sue Irwin; E. A.'s—Judith Rhodes, Carole Hooper, and Charlene Bell; Deltas—Joe Ann Wilt, Martha Kate Butler, and Karen Richardson Martin; Pi Sigs—Regina Crosby, and Kathy Filer; Zetas—Rose Baldwin, Ella Potter, and Sandy Gerlach (The Sweetheart of KAPPA SIGMA, LAMBDA SIGMA—George Sells and Virgil Hall; Sigmas—Sam Deeb, Walter Hawkins, and Ken Mooren; KAPPA SIGS—Charlie Campbell, Roy Ross, and Mike Duggins.

The HILLS was recently host to a series of Spring Formals. We, at W.H. saw the Sigmas, E.A.'s and Zetas march pass very elegantly attired. The Sigmas chose Kay Washer, Pi Sig, for their Queen and Bill Blewett as the Outstanding Sigma. The E.A.'s elected Joe Fitzpatrick as their King and Carol Sue Gatterdam and Lelea Cole as their Outstanding members. The Zetas selected Ronnie Roberts, Sigma, as their King.

My Pal Val says: "I want to wish everyone the best of luck on final exams and we, at W.H.R., will be looking forward to seeing you in the fall. Have a nice summer."

Be Seeing You,
Bill Swartz
